Robert Bruce was the king of Scotland. His Country was at war with the English. Everytime he fought a war, he was defeated. He felt very sad and lost every hope of winning.

He went to the forest and hid himself in a cave. He was all alone. Suddenly he saw a spider going up the wall to its web. Each time the spider came near the web and tumbled down. The spider, however kept trying. At last, it succeeded and reached its web. This made King Bruce to think deeply. He was inspired by it.

He came back and fought against his enemies. He became victorious. He won the battle.
