PREFACE

Computer has assumed such an important place in modern day-life that we can not imagine a smooth and successful life minus it. Therefore, it becomes necessary to get a student equipped with computer and educate in it.

It is not easy to prepare a text book on this complicated subject in a simple manner thus I have tried to include in these books, the latest information about computers and covered topics, like windows, networking, computer virus, multimedia, Internet fundamentals and other computer related information.

The need of modern day education was kept in mind while designing the syllabus. The author will be obliged to entertain any suggestions from the learned faculty and the students.

About Me, a Computer

Hello Children! Do you recognise me ?

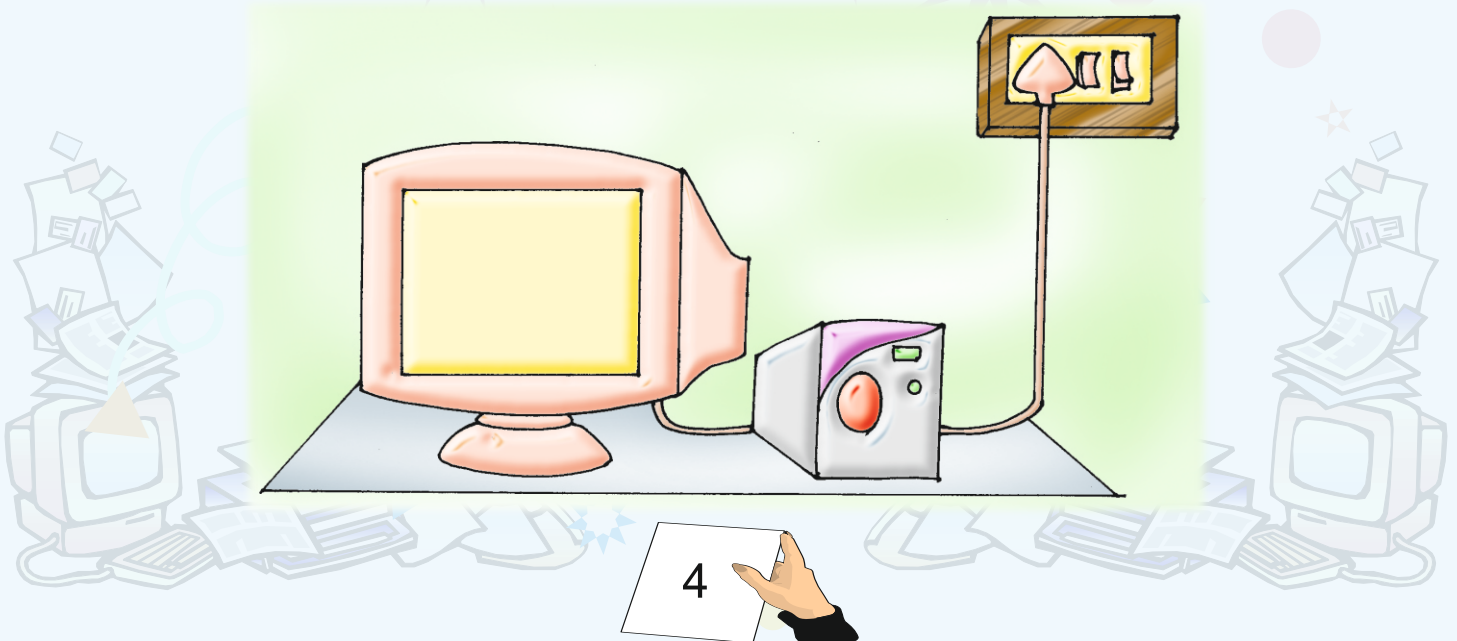

I am your friend 'COMPUTER'.
I am a machine.

Friend's Do you know I can do a lot of work for you. All of you can also do a lot of work. But for doing work we need energy. You take energy from food.

I also need energy to work. I am a machine so I take energy from electricity.

Let me introduce some other machines also.

It is a washing machine.
It can wash your clothes.

It is a T.V. You can see movies and cartoon on it.

It is a fan. It gives you cool air.

It is a Telephone. You can talk with your friend.

These machines work on electricity. With the help of these machines you can do your work
