ABOUT THE SERIES

The series English - A Way to communicate - for classes LKG to VIII is based on the psychological theories of language - acquisition, specially designed to suit the needs of the children at the primary stage.

The main features of the series :

- Use of phonetic approach to develop correct speech habits.
- Emphasis on oral conversation to encourage use of English language in every day situation.
- Introducing the four language skills - Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing.
- Creating love for nature - animals, trees and plants.
- Use of lively colourful illustrations to stimulate ideas, explain concepts and initiate conversation.
- Inclusion of Rhymes to create a love for the language and to sensitise various sensibilities of the growing minds.
